

Feedback about Syllabi

Feedbacks are collected from students, teachers, alumni and parents in the year 2014-15. The collected feedback from stakeholders was analyzed by the expert committee headed by the Principal and they are as follows.

- The chapters covered in ancient history and the subject Design Act. are beyond the scope and capacity of student's understanding.
- The chapter like medieval history prescribed in B.A.LL.B.-I and Trademark Act. Prescribed in LL.B.-II is lengthy and is required in nut shed form.
- The stakeholder suggested to include subjects like Cyber Laws in the present scenario as it is necessary.

Feedback about Syllabi

Feedbacks are collected from students, teachers, alumni and parents in the year 2015-16. The collected feedback from stakeholders was analyzed by the expert committee headed by the Principal and they are as follows.

- The chapters covered in Muslim Laws and Hindu partition are beyond the scope and capacity of student's understanding.
- The chapter like Pious obligation, Nairobi declaration is lengthy and is required in nut shed form.
- The stakeholder suggested to including subjects like Information Technology Act. in the present scenario as it is necessary.

Feedback about Syllabi

Feedbacks are collected from students, teachers, alumni and parents in the year 2016-17. The collected feedback from stakeholders was analyzed by the expert committee headed by the Principal and they are as follows.

- The chapters covered in ancient history and stock home declaration are beyond the scope and capacity of student's understanding.
- The chapter like Modern History, Trademark Act. is lengthy and is required in nut shed form.
- The stakeholder suggested to include subjects like Information Technology Act. and Cyber Laws in the present scenario as it is necessary.